Speciality Teas

Irish Breakfast

A fine blend of Assam and Ceylon, with a distinctive Ceylon character. Malty and full bodied.

Mixed Berries

A rich and fruity blend of hibiscus, raspberry pieces and a subtle hint of orange.

Rooibos

Caffeine free, but full of antioxidant properties. Light and rich with a delightful hint of orange and clove.

Earl Grey with Cornflower

A blend of the finest Keemun, Darjeeling, Assam and Ceylon mixed with the delicate aroma of the bergamot fruit.

Yunnan FOP Green

A green tea from the Yunnan province of Southern China. Light, nutty and slightly smokey.

Indian Spiced Chai Tea

Black tea, ginger root, cinnamon bark and cardamom seeds for a deliciously warming drink.

Peppermint

A cut leaf peppermint tea with a cooling and calming reputation.

Decaf Ceylon

A Ceylon orange pekoe tea, decaffeinated using the carbon dioxide method.

Camomile Flower

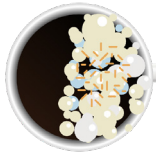

Light and bright, slightly sweet and with a remarkable calming effect.

Artisan Coffee

The Bench's express guide to the complex and sometimes confusing world of coffee.

Cappuccino

£3.50

1 part espresso. 1 part steamed milk. 1 part froth.

Loved for its creamy texture and taste, this frothy delight is topped with a dust of chocolate for additional taste.

Americano

£3.20

1/3 espresso. 2/3 hot water.

One of the preferred breakfast drinks.

Rich and aromatic. Have it with or without milk!

Latte

£3.50

1/3 espresso. 2/3 hot milk.

A milder tasting drink, made with steamed milk and crowned by a beautiful pattern.

Flat White

£3.30

Double shot of espresso + steamed milk.

If there is a drink that encapsulates a Barista's skill it is the flat white. Smooth, velvety foam that will make you feel like you are drinking espresso, only yummiier!

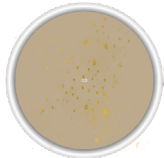

Mocha

£4.50

1/3 espresso. Steamed milk and melted chocolate.

Chocolate meets coffee in this deliciously rich drink. Try it with any variety of our luxurious chocolates.

Chai Latte
